

MORNING PRAYER

Hymn	All hail the power of Jesus' name	#450
	1 All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall. Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown him Lord of all. Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown him Lord of all!
	2 O seed of Israel's chosen race now ransomed from the fall, hail him who saves you by his grace, and crown him Lord of all. Hail him who saves you by his grace, and crown him Lord of all!
	3 Let every tongue and every tribe responsive to his call, to him all majesty ascribe, and crown him Lord of all. To him all majesty ascribe, and crown him Lord of all!
	4 Oh, that with all the sacred throng we at his feet may fall! We'll join the everlasting song and crown him Lord of all. We'll join the everlasting song and crown him Lord of all.

THE WORD OF GOD IN SCRIPTURE

The lessons should be announced by the lector, citing the complete citation so that people may follow along in their bibles. The following format is suggested:

“The First (...or Second) Lesson is written in (such a book), the (...such a) chapter, beginning at (...such a) verse.”

At the end of the reading the following should be said:

“Here ends the first (...Second) Lesson.”

First lesson 1st Thessalonians 2:1-8 (Bible p. 1345)

Office Hymn How lovely is thy dwelling place #517

1 How lovely is your dwelling-place,

O Lord of hosts, to me;

my thirsting soul longs eagerly within your courts to be.

2 Beside your altars, Lord of all,

the swallows find a nest;

happy are those who dwell with you and praise you without rest;

3 And happy those whose hearts are set

upon the pilgrim ways:

3 Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting you are God,
to endless years the same.

4 A thousand ages in your sight
are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

5 The busy tribes of flesh and blood,
with all their lives and cares,
are carried downward by your flood,
and lost in foll'wing years.

6 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
bears all its sons away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream
dies at the op'ning day.

7 Our God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come:
O be our guard while troubles last,
and our eternal home.

beseech you for people everywhere and in their circumstances that you would be pleased to make your ways known to them, your saving health to all nations. More especially we pray for your holy Church universal; that it may be so guided and governed by your good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to your fatherly goodness all those who are in any ways afflicted or distressed, in mind, body, or estate; [especially those for whom our prayers are desired]; that it may please you to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ, his sake. Amen.

Hymn O God, our help in ages past #680

1 Our God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home:

2 Under the shadow of your throne
your saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is your arm alone,
and our defense is sure.

*you are the water when they thirst,
their guide towards your face.*

4 *How blest are they that in your house
for ever give you praise:
one day with you is better spent than thousands in dark ways.*

5 *The Lord will hold back no good thing
from those who justly live;
to all who trust, the Lord of hosts will all his blessings give.*

Hymn Where cross the crowded ways of life #609

1 *Where cross the crowded ways of life,
where sound the cries of race and clan,
above the noise of selfish strife,
we hear your voice, O Son of Man.*

2 *In haunts of wretchedness and need,
on shadowed thresholds fraught with fears,
from paths where hide the lures of greed,
we catch the vision of your tears.*

3 *From tender childhood's helplessness,
from human grief and burdened toil,*

*from famished souls, from sorrow's stress,
your heart has never known recoil.*

*4 The cup of water given for you still holds the freshness of your grace; yet long these multitudes to view
the sweet compassion of your face.*

*5 O Master, from the mountainside,
make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
among these restless throngs abide;
O tread the city's streets again;*

*6 Till all the world shall learn your love,
and follow where your feet have trod;
till glorious from your heaven above shall come the city of our God.*

Sunday Collects

Pentecost XXI

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Trinity XX

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that thou wouldest have done; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Parish Intercession/Prayer List:

Michael our Presiding Bishop, Mark our Bishop, Arthur and William our associate bishops;

For the whole world for which Jesus died and rose again, that this pandemic may bring about a permanent dismantling of the dividing walls that have set us in opposition to one another, and so, wounded the love of God

Our parish family, that God will draw us closer to God's self and to one another, through this pandemic. For seniors who are isolated from families; for those who have lost their jobs and miss their friendships. For care givers who work in selfless dedication to others, especially the sick and the dying.

For all who have asked our prayers: Jeanette, Charlie, Mary, Robert, Amber & Family, William, Neil, Cathy, Rebecca, Donald, Anna, Bob, Dorothy, Thelma, Shirley, Georgette, Joan, Barb, Donna, Pastor Tim, the May family, Johanna, Callie, Jan, Joe, Barb, Peggy, Deb, Shannon, Larry
